

Amendments. The petitions recommended that would close longstanding loopholes that jeopardize America's election integrity. The FEC previously established rules on the grounds that the Attorney General would not have the authority to require the FEC to take any action. The petition is no longer available in the Attorney General's database. It is not covered by the FEC, but actions can—without extra vote—significantly favor foreign assets in American elections, exceed political spending limits, and more.

Our investigation into Article has uncovered facts that suggest that our actions can directly interfere in America's election integrity by disrupting political operations. It is important that the FEC close the loopholes we have identified by which foreign governments or individuals can use Article to gain access to the electoral process in political campaigns, bypassing campaign finance regulations and compromising our electoral system, and, as several Senate Panels, "I am asking the FEC to immediately begin reviewing to ensure no elections from any external actors interfering in our vulnerable elections."
